

SLCU visit to the newly appointed Ambassador in Brussels was a positive venture.

By Abubakarr
Place: Tilburg
Date: 20/06/08

A delegation from the SLCU visited the new Sierra Leone Ambassador Dr. Christian Kargbo in Brussels on the 20th of June, 2008. The visit was aimed at strengthening the relationship with the Sierra Leonean Embassy. During this visit, a brief background presentation of the SLCU, its achievements, plans and challenges in the coming years was presented to the Ambassador.

“..the Ambassador expressed his appreciation of what the SLCU is doing and vowed to engage in a structural relationship with the SLCU..”

Ambassador Dr. Christian Kargbo (left in white) and the SLCU chairman (right in black)

In his remarks, the Ambassador expressed his appreciation of what the SLCU is doing and vowed to engage in a structural relationship with the SLCU. And to maximize the relationship, the SLCU would in the future coordinate all developmental projects with the Embassy and also visit the Embassy periodically. During these visits, progressive reports of our programs would be discussed and evaluated. Furthermore, new strategies to strengthen our organizational structure shall be formulated.